

Call for scholarship applications
Balassi Summer University
(Hungarian language – Hungarian studies)

The Balassi Institute invites applications for a Hungarian State scholarship for the

BALASSI SUMMER UNIVERSITY PROGRAM

The scholarship is intended for individuals of Hungarian descent living outside of Hungary and outside of the Carpathian Basin, who wish to improve their command of Hungarian language and cultural identity.

The goal of the scholarship is to improve the Hungarian language skills and cultural knowledge of young people of Hungarian descent who are citizens and residents of other countries. The four-week long course takes place at the Balassi Institute in Budapest.

Young people of Hungarian descent, who are 18 years old or older are invited to apply.

Volunteer work, references from their University, and any other activities related to the Hungarian culture are taken into consideration in the selection of the applicants.

Description of the program:

During the four-week long program the students attend 80 Hungarian language classes, and they can participate in Hungarian studies lectures and extramural activities. Outside of class they will visit museums and will have various programs where they can gain experience regarding the Hungarian culture. At the end of the program they will take an oral and a written exam.

For those students who wish to apply for credits at their Universities, the Balassi Institute provides detailed course descriptions.

Class attendance is compulsory. Should a participant miss classes without cause, or violate the Institute's Study and Exam rules or Disciplinary Guidelines, the individual will lose the right to continue in the program and the right to reside in the Institute's residence.

Program duration: 4 weeks (25 July, 2016 – 19 August, 2016)

The scholarship includes:

- Tuition fee
- Course materials
- Student residence (2-3 persons per room)
- Three meals a day

- Pass for public transportation
